

JANUARY 18, 2022

2022 election of directors

For election of new directors for a four year term.

CONSERVANCY
of Southwest Florida
OUR WATER, LAND, WILDLIFE, FUTURE.

Protecting Southwest Florida's unique natural environment and quality of life ... now and forever.

CHRISTIAN CAMPBELL

Owner of Christian L. Campbell Consulting LLC

Mr. Campbell previously served as Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of YUM from its formation in 1997 until his retirement in February 2016. Christian oversaw all legal matters at YUM and was responsible for the oversight of YUM purchasing as a director of YUM's purchasing cooperative with its franchisees. Prior to joining YUM, Mr. Campbell was a Senior Vice President and General Counsel at Owens Corning, a leading global producer of fiberglass insulation and composite building materials. Prior to Owens Corning, he was Vice President and General Counsel for Nalco Chemical Company. In addition, Mr. Campbell was a founding director of Restaurant Supply Chain Solutions, Inc. ("RSCS"), a purchasing cooperative for YUM's U.S. franchising partners, and he served on RSCS's board of directors from its formation in 2001 until 2015.

SHEILA DEMKOVICH

Retired

Born in Hammond, Indiana, Sheila and Paul are parents of four children. They moved to Naples, Florida in 1994 for Paul's job location. Sheila has volunteered in the von Arx Wildlife hospital since 2007. She helped develop routine lab tests for animal parasites with the help of the Conservancy's veterinarian and she trains interns to perform these testings. She serves on the Volunteer of the Month nominating committee as well. Sheila has been an avid bird watcher for 50+ years, including international travel. Her North American life list is near 500 species and her world life list is 1000 species. She has personal enjoyment in seeing different environments and the representative birds, animals and reptiles in those habitats. She is also an orchid grower and enthusiast with a collection of 200 plants.

LINDA GRIJALVA

Retired Vice President & Legal Counsel for Mizuho Corporate Bank (NYC), Associate, Dewey Ballantine (NYC)

Linda and her husband, Victor, have been Florida residents since 2013, and spend their summers at their homes in Manhattan and Connecticut. She enjoys tennis, genealogy and reading, and she and Victor enjoy traveling and visiting their four children and five grandchildren. With a black belt in Shotokan karate, Linda was a USA Karate Federation Senior Women's National Champion. She is delighted to support the Conservancy's mission to protect Southwest Florida's water, land and wildlife, and has a special interest in Everglades restoration and environmental policy. Linda is on the Conservancy Magic Under the Mangroves Committee, and is a former Naples Children & Education Foundation trustee and grant committee. She is also a member of the New York State Bar Association and Bar of the U.S. Supreme Court, Daughters of the American Revolution (Big Cypress Chapter), naturalization committee chair, and patron at the Central Park Conservancy and New-York Historical Society.

CEDRIC SHAW

Retired Group President, Illinois Tool Works, Inc.

Cedric Shaw retired as Group President from Illinois Tool Works of Glenview, IL in 2015. He was responsible for the Signode Americas Industrial Packaging businesses, including Software technologies and world-wide innovation leadership. Prior to that, he was responsible for ITW Strength Films businesses world-wide. In 1993, Mr. Shaw joined ITW Newtec as General Manager. He became Group GM of ITW Stretch Packaging Systems in 1996. He also held VP and GM positions in ITW's Power Systems and Food Equipment organizations. Prior to joining ITW, Mr. Shaw held positions with Continental Can, Figgie Packaging Systems and Package Machinery Company over a 13 year period. Mr. Shaw was a four year letterman and team captain for the University of Iowa Hawkeye Football team. Cedric has been married to his wife, Pepper, for 34 years. They reside in Naples, Florida and have two children and two grandchildren.

ROGER WESTON

Former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of GreatBanc, Inc.

Roger served as the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of GreatBanc, Inc. from 1986 - 2006. He currently serves as a director of numerous public and private companies. He is an avid fisherman and when in Naples fishes nearly every day. Roger and his wife Pam have supported the Conservancy through Magic Under the Mangroves and has participated in python necropsies since being introduced to the work of the python team last year. He is a life trustee of the Art Institute of Chicago, collects Asian Art, and has donated many pieces to the museum. The Roger L. and Pamela Weston Wing and Japanese Art Galleries, which opened at the museum in 2010, displays many of those pieces.