Naples Botanical Garden
VIP Tour, Lunch, and Membership Package*
2024 Magic Under the Mangroves

- A private tour for six (6) people of the nearly completed Evenstad Horticulture Campus
- A private lunch including chef's selection of wine in the Pastore Family Caribbean House in Naples Botanical Garden's Kapnick Caribbean Garden for six (6) people
- One (1) year Family & Friends level Garden membership for each person

Naples Botanical Garden conserves the plants and habitats of the tropics, cultivates beauty, offers knowledge, and inspires the protection of nature. Only three miles from downtown Naples, the Garden's 170-acres feature a stunning plant collection from tropical and subtropical regions around the globe and native to Florida. Meander through lush, designed gardens and natural preserve trails on 90-acres of restored habitat, enjoy special art exhibits, Fogg Café, Berger Shop in the Garden, and endless botanical beauty.

Tour the nearly completed 60,000 square foot Evenstad Horticulture Campus which is among a handful of tropical growing operations in the United States. Custom designed for Naples Botanical Garden, the campus will allow for the enhancement of the Garden, the development of nature-based solutions to environmental challenges, and the conservation of tropical and subtropical plants. This includes native species threatened by habitat loss, climate change, and natural disasters.

Enjoy a garden-inspired luncheon for six (6) with chef's choice of wine in the climate controlled private Pastore House nestled in the Kapnick Caribbean Garden.

The memories of your private tour and luncheon at Naples Botanical Garden will live on as you visit often with your one year, Family & Friends level Garden membership.

Members enjoy free general admission for two named member adults, two adult guests, as well as children and grandchildren under eighteen.

**Package available on a mutually agreed date with a minimum of two (2) weeks advance notice, valid through March 8, 2025.*
